I want to encourage you to register today for the Texas Society of Psychiatric Physicians’ 57th Annual Convention and Scientific Program, “Update in Psychiatric Care; Changes and Challenges in Practice” being held in Houston, November 8-10. Dr. Gary Etter and the CME Committee have put together another outstanding scientific program and we will be meeting at the new Westin Houston Memorial City Hotel. This meeting is an opportunity to network and socialize with colleagues and be involved with the work of TSPP in addition to hearing great speakers as part of the educational activities. The Memorial City location is one of Houston’s most vibrant areas with shopping, dining and nightlife all conveniently nearby.

The meeting gets started Friday with the TSPP committee meetings which provide members with a chance to participate in the advocacy activities of the Society. Most committees are open to all members so feel free to join the groups that catch your interest. The Friday night opening reception will be with the convention exhibitors and will feature a Poster Session. The Scientific Program kicks off Saturday morning beginning with Dr. David Arciniegas from Baylor College of Medicine speaking on attention and memory impairments following traumatic brain injuries followed by Dr. Kevin Gray from UT Southwestern updating the group on DSM-5’s Major Neurocognitive Disorder diagnosis. After lunch, Dr. Randall Urban, Chair of UTMB Internal Medicine, will discuss hypercaldemia and the program will wrap up with a discussion of Maintenance of Certification by Dr. Robert Gauvin of the UT Medical School at Houston and a Director of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology. The program continues on Sunday morning with Dr. John Sadler of UT Southwestern discussing psychiatric virtue followed by the ethics/legal presentation by Mari Robinson, JD, Executive Director of the Texas Medical Board discussing relevant statutory and rule changes from the recent legislative session and how these impact Texas physicians.

Please make note of two special offerings at the conference. On Friday afternoon, a session is scheduled for Early Career Psychiatrists and Members in Training titled “Life After Residency: Risk Considerations in Private Practice.” This session will be presented by Moira Wetheimer, BSN, JD, from Healthcare Risk Management. The program will address issues of forming a new practice. There is also a mini-workshop on changes to the Texas Mental Health Code held in conjunction with the Texas Academy of Psychiatry to be presented by Dr. Lauren Parsons on Friday.

The Annual Business Meeting Saturday will feature the presentation of the TSPP Special Service Award to Nicole Cooper, MD and the David Pharis Award to Bexar County for their “Patient Wellness Program.” Elections will also be conducted for elective positions within TSPP and the Foundation.

Be sure and join us Saturday night for the Awards Reception and Banquet at the hotel. This year Ms. Lyne Cleveland of Houston will receive TSPP Special Service Awards. Also, Drs. Edward Furber of Fort Worth and Esteban Gonzalez of McAllen will receive the Dr. Spencer Bales Outstanding TSPP Member award.

All-in-all, an excellent line up for the weekend. Register today if you haven’t already and encourage your colleagues to attend with you. I hope to see you there.

83rd Legislative Interim a Hotbed of Mental Health Activities

Texas lawmakers have concluded legislative activities for the near term, absent an unexpected call for a fourth special session by Gov. Rick Perry. Most legislators have returned home to their day jobs and to prepare for the upcoming election cycle. Left in their wake are myriad regulatory activities that require attention from the Federation and mental health advocates. Between elections and rulemakings, the involvement of Federation in the legislative process remains critical.

This year, the Legislature passed House Bill 915, requiring greater informed consent for the administration of a psychotropic medication to children in foster care. The Federation testified at length on the bill and met with authors and key stakeholders to ensure that any new reporting requirements were not onerous to physicians.

The Department of Family and Protective Services created a working group to iron out the details of the implementation of H.B. 915. Through this process, the Federation advocated successfully to preserve existing informed consent documentation as presently utilized at each individual point of access. The only new DFPS form that will impact physicians is a one-page generic document to be completed by the consentor and signed by a physician (or their designee) that indicates that statutorily required information was presented prior to treatment. Drs. Nakiia Scott and Steven Plasska were active in these negotiations and their participation and experience was extremely valuable.

In September, the Federation coordinated a meeting between DFPS Commissioner John Specia, DFPS Medical Director Dr. Jim Rogers and Dr. Plasska to discuss psychotropic prescribing issues and opportunities to enhance the two organizations’ working relationship going forward. Appointed in November, 2012, Comm. Specia has extensive experience in policy issues involving children and families. He served as judge in Bexar County for almost two decades and established the Bexar County Children’s Court and the Family Drug Treatment Court. He also served as vice-chair of the Supreme Court’s Permanent Judicial Commission for Children, Youth and Families and chair of the Supreme Court Task Force on Foster Care.

In September, DFPS released refined psychotropic medication review parameters for children and youth in foster care. When exceeded, the nine defined parameters indicate for a need to review a patient’s clinical care. The new parameters include four or more psychotropic medications prescribed concomitantly, the prescribing of two or more concomitant stimulants, alpha agonists, antidepressants or antipsychotics, as well as three more concomitant mood stabilizers.

Additional review may also be indicated when psychotropic medications are prescribed for children of very young age, including children under three years of age receiving stimulants or alpha agonists, as well as children less than four years of age being prescribed antidepressants, antipsychotics and mood stabilizers. A complete list of the parameters can be found at: http://www.dfps.state.tx.us/documents/Child_Protection/pdf/TFosterCareParameters-September2013.pdf. Earlier this year, the Legislature adopted H.B. 3793, which requires the Department of State Health Services to develop a plan to improve allocation methodologies for outpatient mental health services and beds in state hospitals to patients receiving voluntary services as well as those undergoing competency restoration. The state’s financial commitment of nearly $50 million to eliminate waiting lists for community mental health services is a big factor in terms of availability of resources, as well as a legislatively established pilot program for jail-based competency restoration and the Federation legislative priority of a more robust assisted outpatient treatment program.

An advisory panel is assisting DHS in developing the plan, and the Federation is participating in those discussions. The panel is holding monthly meetings in

NOW is the time for you to participate in the Texas Foundation for Psychiatric Education and Research's twenty-second Annual Campaign conducted each Fall to encourage charitable contributions to support the Foundation's goals: fighting stigma and discrimination; ensuring that patients have access to quality psychiatric treatment; and improving treatment through innovative research.

Foundation's Annual Campaign Goals

• A major focus of the Foundation is to educate the public and policymakers about mental illnesses with the goal of ending stigma and eradicating discriminatory practices that impose unnecessary barriers to accessing and receiving quality psychiatric care.

• The Annual Campaign encourages unrestricted charitable contributions to be allocated by the Foundation to programs in Texas that address the Foundation's goals of fighting stigma and discrimination against persons diagnosed with psychiatric disorders; ensuring that patients have access to quality psychiatric care; and improving treatment through innovative research.

From generous donations received, the Foundation has awarded 128 grants amounting to $253,921 to support programs addressing its goals:
• Public Education/Advocacy - $107,921 (43%)
• Professional Education - $139,000 (50%)
• Research - $7,000 (2%)

The Foundation's Annual Campaign 2013 offers a unique opportunity for psychiatrists and others to allocate their charitable contributions to an organization led by psychiatrists and mental health advocates who make decisions regarding the funding of programs that address the Foundation's goals.

Will you participate in this opportunity to help people diagnosed with psychiatric illness? Send your charitable donation today to: Texas Foundation for Psychiatric Education and Research, 401 West 15th Street, Suite 675, Austin, Texas 78701.
